EDITED BY THE L. C. CLUB.

The St. Louis Press Club met last Sunday at the Planters Hotel, and had a large and enthusiastic meeting. Among other well known newspaper men who addressed the club were Ripley D. Saunders, president, Joseph D. Salkeld, secretary and Walter A. Tibbles, one of the five directors. Mr. Tibbles spoke of the need of a strong Press Club in our city, and his speech was listened to with marked attention after which the brilliant assistant editor of the World was given an ovation by the members present. Tib," as he is called by the boys, has had a long and brilliant career as a newspaper man. He was formerly proprietor of the Grand Forks, N. D., daily Herald, city editor of the Memconnected with the Kansas City Star and Chicago Tribune. After the World was started "Tib" was given charge of the editorial work, which position he now holds. He is a member of all the leading organizations of this city including the Iron County Club. With such material as Walter A. Tibbles the new St. Louis Press Club is bound to be a success.
